An Astonished Englishman.

Gov. Beckham was the man that brought the cheers at the State Encampment at Mammoth Cave, says the Courier-Journal. His heartiness and apparent personal interest in everything that he saw won the hearts of the soldier boys, while Mrs. Beckham could scarcely appear without some of the men setting up a cheer for the "first lady." An Englishman and his wife, who were present at the Cave Hotel, seemed greatly impressed by the immense popularity of Governor and Mr. Beckham with the soldiers.

"How is it," the visitor questioned, "that so young a man and so young a woman can hold them?"

The officer who was questioned replied: "Just wait and see."

That night the visitors attended the Governor's ball. They saw a private soldier step up boldly and claim the Governor's lady for a dance away from the Colonel of his regiment, and saw the private's claim graciously allowed. In another corner of the ballroom the Governor and some of his officers were in a playful dispute as to which should have the next dance with another belle.

The next morning at inspection the English people saw all the stiff military formality replaced. The private who had danced with the Governor's lady was now holding the Governor's horse, while an officer whom he had beaten out the night before "jacked him up" for not having his shoes clean.

The Englishman threw up his hands. "Only you Americans could do that!" he exclaimed, "and no wonder your Governor is popular."—Harrodsburg Herald.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MURRAY COMEDY COMPANY.

The Murray Comedy Company have been giving delightful entertainments all of this week at the Grand Opera House to good business. It is one of the best companies playing repertoire that has visited our city, and is composed of ladies and gentlemen who rank high in their chosen profession. The plays presented by the company are all high-standard and are given in a way that is most acceptable to our amusement-loving people.

The specialties presented each evening are of the best and are much enjoyed, the moving pictures being especially worthy of notice.

Last night the company presented that clever farce comedy, entitled, "Miss Hursey from Jersey," and there was fun from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

To-night will be presented "A Southern Romance."

A children's matinee will be given on tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Saturday night will be amateur night, when a prize of $5 will be given to the best amateur that appears.

Manager Scott, of the Lexington opera house, has been compelled to make a rule that no children in arms will be admitted to the opera house. He regrets that this rule must be made and enforced, but so many performances have been interfered with the restlessness and the crying of the small children who attend the playhouse with their parents that the rule must be enforced for the protection of both the audience and the company.

Summer Corsets.

Now is the season when a light, cool corset is appreciated. Not only must the corset be light, but the model must be spotless, and can only be free from rust stains by being absolutely proof against perspiration. We guarantee the

Warner Bros. Corsets

to be absolutely Rust Proof, and if after continuous wear in the warmest temperature a corset branded "Warner's Rust Proof" becomes spotted or stained the daintiest underlines, the wearer is entitled to a new corset or money refunded.

The qualities and models are too varied to give a definite description of each; and they come in light, soft batistes and dainty Summer nets. Each model is ornate with laces and soft ribbon corresponding to the quality of material.
